My dream job description:

Web Designer
The Web Designer will create graphic assets for website.

Works closely with team in the creative department with writers, designers and other creative specialists.

They will develop and maintain assets to be used across all digital areas of the company.

The designer will also recommend changes to and update the web content.

This role is the keeper of the corporate brand, ensuring consistency throughout the company.

Proficiency in Adobe Creative Suite, primarily Photoshop, Illustrator, knowledge of Wordpress, Bootstrap or similar content management system required

Familiar with basic UX/UI design processes and requirements

May be called upon to write content

Traditional print and production knowledge is a plus

Flexible hours, telecommuting is a possibility but may need to be in office as needed to meet with team or present ideas to other stakeholders.

Required
Portfolio or link to online portfolio that demonstrates capabilities

5-7 years graphic design experience in a professional environment

Company Location
Within 10 miles of miles of my house