

ANGELICA GILLESPIE

WEB DESIGNER

who focuses on UX/UI experiences

about me

Type Self-Portrait

Originally earning a Bachelor's in Creative Writing, I realized I wanted to get into marketing writing but most jobs wanted experience in Adobe products.

Oh dear. That's way to hard to learn by myself. So I went to Macomb Community College where I found a new passion, Interactive Web Design, where I aspire to be a UX/UI Designer.

"I want to build high-quality and user-friendly web experiences."
