

Are You Ready? — Quiz

Correct Answers are * and highlighted in yellow

1. Which web accessibility feature for web browsing BEST helps users with low vision?

- a. Dictation software
- *b. Magnifier/Zoom
- c. Screen reader
- d. Braille display

2. Which of the following components do screen readers find most helpful in navigating through a web page?

- a. Tables
- b. Links
- c. Headings
- *d. All of the above.

3. What makes a website's navigation accessible?

- a. Clear and consistent navigation allow users to move through the content efficiently.
- b. Tab order should be consistent and predictable.
- c. Keyboards can be used for all navigation and interactions.
- *d. All of the above.

4. What are the four words that make up the POUR acronym for WCAG?

- a. Predictable, Operable, Understandable, Repeatable
- b. Principle, Objective, Understandable, Robust
- c. Perceivable, Operated, Understandable, Regressive
- *d. Perceivable, Operable, Understandable, Robust

5. Select the TRUE statement about web accessibility.

- a. You're not required to fix issues that are cost prohibitive.
- b. Accessible design interferes with design and layout.
- *c. Many accessibility fixes are simple and don't require a developer.
- d. You don't have to worry about web accessibility until you get a compliant.

6. All of these WCAG success criteria fall under the principle "Understandable", EXCEPT?

- a. Make text readable and understandable.
- *b. Make all functionality available from a keyboard.
- c. Help users avoid and correct mistakes.
- d. Make content appear and function in predictable ways.

7. What are the risks of an inaccessible website?

- a. Loss of revenue.
- b. Litigations and brand reputation.
- c. Talent acquisition difficulties.
- *d. All of the above.

8. What check must be done manually when assessing a website's accessibility?

- *a. Content and tabbing is logically sequenced.
- b. Headings are being used.
- c. Every image must have an alt attribute.
- d. Tables have assigned header rows.

9. Diane works on a desktop and her mobile device. She finds that her user experience with these two devices on the same site are very different. What would improve Diane's experience on multiple devices?

- a. Minimize items on the screen and eliminate interactivity.
- b. Recommend users only use a specific screen size.
- *c. Make sites compatible on multiple platforms without losing functionality
- d. All of the above.

10. True or False: Documents are accessible if you use the authoring program's accessibility checker?

- a. True
- *b. False